THE LITTLE BOY THAT DIED.

The late Dr. Chalmers is said to have been the author of the following beautiful lines, written on the occasion of the death of a young son, whom he greatly loved:

I am all alone in my chamber now,
And the midnight hour is near.
And the faggot's crack, and the clock's dull tick,
Are the only sounds I hear;
And over my soul in its solitude,
Sweet feelings of sadness glide;
For my heart and eyes are full when I think
Of the little boy that died.

I went one night to my father's house—
Went home to the dear ones all,
And softly I opened the garden gate,
And softly the door of the hall;
My mother came to meet her son—
She kissed me and then she sighed,
And her head fell on my neck and she wept
For the little boy that died.

I shall miss him when the flowers come
In the gar en, where he played;
I shall miss him more by the fireside
When the flowers are all decayed;
I shall see his toys and his empty chair,
And the horse he u ed to ride,
And they will speak with silent speech
Of the little boy that died.

We shall go home to our Father's house—
To our Father's house in the skies,
Where the hopes of souls shall have no blight,
Our love no broken ties,
We'll roam on the banks of the river of peace,
And bathe in its blissful tide,
And one of the joys of life shall be
The little boy that died.

Select Miscellany.

WALKING A RAFT.

There was a fellow once stepped out of the door of a tavern on the Mississippi, meaning to walk a mile up to the next tavern. Just at the landing there lay a big raft, one of the regular old fashioned whalers—a raft a mile long.

Well, the fellow heard the landlord say the raft was a mile long, and he said to himself, "I will go forth and see this great wonder, and let my eyes behold the timbers which the hand of man hath hewn." So he got on at the lower end, and began to ambulate over the wood in pretty fair time. But just as he got started the raft started too, and as he walked up the river, it walked down, both traveling at the same rate When he got to the end of the sticks he found they were pretty near ashore, and in sight of a tavern; so he landed, and walked straight into the barroom he'd come out of. The general sameness of things took him a little aback, but he looked the landlord steady in the face, and settled it in his own way

"Publican," said he, "are you gifted with a twin brother, who keeps a similar sized tavern, with a duplicate wife, a comporting wood pile, and a corresponding circus bill, a mile from here?"

The tavern keeper was fond of fun, and accordingly said it was just so.

"And, publican, you have among your dry goods for the entertainment of man and horse any whiskey of the same size of that of your brother's?"

And the tavern man said, that from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same he had.

They took the drinks, when the stranger said, "Publican, that twin brother of yours is a fine young man—a very fine man, indeed. But do you know, I'm afraid that he suffers a good deal with the Chicago diphtheria!"

"And what's that?" asked the toddy-sticker.

"It's when the truth settles so firm in a man that none of it ever comes out.—Common doctors of the catnip sort, call it lyin'. When I left your brother's confectionary, there was a raft at his door, which he swore his life to was a mile long.—Well, publican, I walked that raft from bill to tail, from his door to yours. Now, I know my time, an' I'm just as good for myself as for a hoss, and better for that than any man ever you did see. I always walk a mile in exactly twenty minutes, on a good road, and I'll be busted with an overloaded Injun gun if I've been more'n ten minutes coming here, steppin over the blamed logs at that."

A PRINTER ON A TRAMP.

A Dutchman, sitting at the door of his tavern in the Far West, is approached by a tall thin Yankee, who is emigrating westward on foot with a bundle on a cane over his shoulder.

"Vell Mishter Valking Shtick, vat you vant?"

"Rest and refreshment," replied the printer.

"Supper and lochin, I reckon?"

"Yes—supper and lodging."

"Pe you a Yanky pedlar, mit chewelry in puck, to shteal te gal?"

"No sir, I am no Yankee peddlar."

"A singin' mashter, too lazy to vork?"

"No sir—or I should certainly have mended my own shoes?"

"A book achent, vat bodders to school gommitties till dey do vat you vish, shoost to get rid of you."

"Guess again, sir, I am no book agent."

"I am an humble disciple of Faust—a professor of the art preservative of all arts—a typographer at your service."

"Vatch dat?"

"A printer, sir; a man that prints both books and newspapers."

"A man vat prints newspapers! Oh yaw! yaw! dat ish it—a man votch printsh newspapers! Yaw! yaw! I vish I may be shot if I didn't tink you vash a poor tuyvel of a dishtrict schoolmaster, who vorks for noting, unt poards arount no vhare. Valk in, valk in Mishter Printerman!"

TELL YOUR WIFE.

If you are in any trouble or quandary, tell your wife—that is, if you have one—all about it at once. Ten to one her invention will solve your difficulty sooner than all your logic. The wit of woman has been praised, but her instincts are quicker and keener than her reason. Counsel with your wife, or your mother, or sister, and be assured that light will flash upon your darkness. Women are commonly adjudged as verdant in all but pure womanish affairs. No philosophical student of the sex thus judges them.—Their intuitions, or insight, are the most subtle, and if they cannot see a cat in the meal there is no cat there. In counselling one to tell his troubles to his wife, we would go further and advise him to keep none of his affairs secret from her. Many a home has been happily saved, and many a fortune retrieved by man's full confidence in his better half. Woman is far more a seer and prophet than man, if she be given a fair chance. As a general rule, wives confide the minutest of their plans and thoughts of their husbands, having no involvements to screen from him. Why not reciprocate, if but for the pleasure of meeting confidence with confidence? We are certain that no man succeeds so well in the world as he who, taking a partner for life, makes her a partner of all his purposes and hopes. What is wrong in his impulses or judgement, she will check and set right with her almost universally right instincts. "Help meet" was no insignificant title, as applied to man's companion. She is a meet help to him in every darkness, difficulty and sorrow of life. And what most craves and deserves, is confidence—without which love is never free from a shadow.

☞ A philosopher stepped on board a ferryboat to cross a stream. On the passage he inquired of the ferryman if he understood arithmetic. The man looked astonished.

"Arithmetic! No, sir."

"I am very sorry; for one quarter of your life is gone."

A few minutes after, he asked:

"Do you understand mathematics?"

The boatman smiled, and replied: "No."

"Well, then," said the philosopher, "another quarter of your life is gone."

Just then the boat ran on a snag, and was sinking, when the ferryman jumped up, pulled off his coat, and asked the philosopher with great earnestness of manner:

"Sir, can you swim?"

"No, sir."

"Well, then," said the ferryman, "your whole life is gone, for the boat is going to the bottom."

COLD FEET.—If you have cold feet, immerse them morning and evening in cold water, rub with a rough towel, and run about the room till they burn. In one month you will be entirely relieved. All these red pepper and mustard applications are like rum to the stomach, relieve you to-day, but leave you colder to-morrow.

COURTING IN RIGHT STYLE.

"Gets out you nasty puppy—let me alone, or I'll tell your ma!" exclaimed Sally to her lover, George, who sat about ten feet from her, pulling dirt out of the jam.

"I ain't techin' you, Sal," responded George.

"Well, perhaps you don't mean to nother do yer?"

"No, I don't."

"Cause why, you're too tarnal scarry, you long-legged, lantern-jawed shad-bellied, pigeon-toed, gander-kneed owl, you hain't got a tarnal bit o' sense: get along home with you."

"Now, Sal, I love you, and I can't help it, and ef you don't let me stay and court you, my daddy will sue yourn for that cow he sold him t'other day. By jings I be said he'd do it."

"Well, look here, George, if you want to court me, you'd better do it as a white man does that thing—not set off there as if you thort I was pisen."

"How on airth is that, Sal?"

"Why, sidle right up here and hug and kiss me as if you really had some hope and sinner of a man about you. Do you s'pose a woman's only made to look at, you fool. You know they're made for 'practical results,' as Kossuth says—to hug and kiss and sich like."

"Well," said George, drawing a long breath, "If I must I must. for I do love you, Sal," and so George commenced sidling up to her like a porker going to battle. Laying his arms gently on Sal's shoulder, we thought we heard Sal say:

"Now you begin to please me, old hoss; that's acting like a white man orter."

"Oh, Jerusalem and pancakes!" exclaimed George, "if this ain't better than any apple sass ever marm made, a darn sight. Crackee! buckwheat cakes, slapjacks and lasses ain't no whar long side of you, Sal—Oh, how I love you!"

Here their lips came together, and the report that followed was like pulling a horse's foot out of the mire.

HOW TO GROW RICH.—The only way by which capital can increase is by saving. If you spend as much as you get, you will never be richer than you are. 'Tis not what a man gets, but what he saves, that constitutes his wealth. Go, learn the first two rules of arithmetic: learn addition and subtraction. Add to your present amount of capital any amount you please; substract the amount you add, and tell us if the last amount will not be the same as the first. Every man should, in every year of his life, make some addition to his capital. You say you get but little; never mind—spend less than little; and then next year you will get more, for you will have the profit upon the sum you save.—There is no royal road to wealth any more than to geometry. The man who goes on spending all he gets, and expects that by some lucky hit he shall be raised to wealth, will most likely sink into poverty; for, in case of adverse fortune, he has then no resources; whereas, by economy, he may lay by a stock that may serve as a provision in case of adversity. You may say that the times are bad, the seasons are bad, the laws are bad. Be it so; but, were the case reversed, it would make no difference to you. Look at home; you spend more than you get. How, then, can you be otherwise than poor?

A COURT SCENE.—A man who had never seen the inside of a court house until he was introduced as a witness in a case pending in one of our district courts, sitting last fall in the northern part of the State, being sworn, took his position with his back to the jury, and began telling his story to the judge. Judge R——n, in his bland and courteous manner, said, "Address yourself to the jury, sir." The man made a short pause, but not comprehending what was said to him continued his narrative. His honor was then more explicit, and said to him, "Speak to the jury sir! the men sitting behind you on the benches" The witness then turned around and making an awkward bow, said, with great gravity of manner, "Good morning, gentlemen?"

QUERY ANSWERED.—Why are farmers healthier than professional men?

1. They work more and develope all the muscles of the body.

2. They take exercise in the open air and thus inhale more oxygen.

3. Their food and drink are less adulterated and far more simple.

4. They do not over work their brains, as professional men do.

5. They take their sleep commonly during the hours of darkness, and do not attempt to turn day into night.

6. They are not generally so ambitious, and do not wear themselves out so rapidly in the fierce contest of rivalry.

7. Their pleasures are far more simple and less exhausting.

☞ Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons. It is therefore useless for all such to send us advertisements offering to pay at the end of three or six months. Where advertisements are accompanied with the money, whether one, five or ten dollars, we will give the advertiser the full benefit of cash rates.

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO.,

Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and 10 State street, Boston, are the Agents for the Altoona Tribune, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

A PROPOSAL.

We have no desire to deprive our subscribers of the amount of reading matter to which they are entitled, but our advertising patrons have crowded our columns considerably at the present time, and as they pay well, of course we don't refuse them room. To tell the truth, we don't regret our present "tight place," as, after all, it is by the advertising patronage we receive we are enabled to keep up our paper. Whilst a good paying subscription list is a material help to a paper, yet if it had to subsist on that alone, very few country papers could live. In order to accommodate our subscribers as well as our advertising patrons, we propose to enlarge our paper one column on each page, at the commencement of the next volume, or sooner, if we receive proper encouragement. What say our subscribers to this? Will they lend a helping hand by paying up old scores and a year in advance, and each one ask his neighbor to subscribe? It will enable us to make our paper more interesting and you will thereby be benefitted.

JOHN BELL ON SECESSION.—A New York journal publishes a report from Tennessee to the effect that John Bell has prepared an elaborate address to the American people on the crisis, taking strong grounds against the right of secession and the expediency of it, and demonstrating the ruin to the border States which must follow from the Gulf States going out. Mr Bell, it is understood, advises conciliatory measures, and shows how strong the united South will be against any Republican foray and how Lincoln will be compelled to be conservative.

☞ Congress met on Monday last. There was a quorum in both Houses. The President's Message was read on Tuesday. It is not so lengthy as we anticipated. We have not yet had time to read it, consequently cannot speak of its merits.

LOCAL ITEMS.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon last an accident occurred in the yard in this place, by which Mr. John Cramer, of Tyrone, who runs a market car on the road, was severely, if not fatally injured. It is customary to run the Local Freight Train to the head of the yard, when coming in from the East, and drop the cars down the different tracks on which they are wanted. On Friday afternoon Mr. C's car was the last on the train, and after being run to the head of the yard, it and several box cars were dropped down a track on which a number of coal trucks were standing By some means the cars which were being dropped down became unmanageable and ran down the yard at considerable speed, driving Mr. C's car with great force against the trucks Mr. C. was standing on the front end of his car, consequently did not see his danger. After the concussion and, as he thinks, when the cars were springing back, his head was caught between the top of his car and the one following it and received a squeeze sufficiently hard to fracture his skull for several inches, extending from his forehead, and over his left ear, to the base of the skull. Otherwise he was not injured in the least He was taken to the office of Drs. Good & Gemmill, where his wound was dressed, after which he was removed to Bowman's Exchange, where he now lies.—Everything that medical skill can suggest is being applied for his relief and he now appears to rest easy, although he is not out of danger.

A BEAUTY.—On Tuesday evening last, at the invitation of Mr. D. R. Miller, of the Logan House, we jumped on a sled and rode up to the slaughter-house of Mr. Runyan, to see a pig which the latter had just slaughtered for the former. It was a sight worth seeing—a beauty—in fact a perfect hog. It weighed, when dressed, the nice little pile of 520 pounds It was not as long as the common breed of hogs in this part of the country, but, as a dutchman would say, it was "wide out" It measured, as nearly as we could ascertain, a foot and a half across the shoulders and nearly two feet across the kidneys. The fat on its back bone measured seven inches and the flitches between six and eight inches in thickness. The pig was of the Suffolk breed—full blooded—and was about 3 years old. It was brought here and raised by Mr. Miller who has the reputation of, and prides himself in, getting a good breed of whatever kind of stock he raises, and the yield of pork above noticed proves that all who raise hogs would be the gainers if they followed his example.

☞ While Supervisor Snyder was having the "Lock Up" cleaned out a few days since, he discovered written upon the wall the information that Jesse Cogan was the first inmate of that institution, and Chas. A. Pierson was the first night lodger.

CAPTURE OF A BEAR.—One of the most singular captures, or rather crippling, of a bear that probably ever took place, occurred on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, about 5 o'clock on Thursday evening last, a short distance above Black Log Station, in the "Long Narrows" between Mifflin and Lewistown. As engine No. 139—Grif. A. Conner, engineer—with a freight train attached, was going down the "Narrows," the hands on the train observed a large black bear crossing the river some distance ahead. It came up to the road, just as the engine reached the point where he crossed the river, and the speed of the train having been checked, bruin ran along ahead of the engine for some time, and seemed determined on crossing the track. At last he made the attempt when he was struck by the cowcatcher which broke his right fore-leg at the shoulder and his left hind-leg.

When the train reached Black Log Station, Grif gave his engine in charge of the fireman, and procuring an axe he started back to despatch the bear, which he found in a ravine close to where the accident occurred, but when he attempted to acquaint bruin with the axe, the latter backed up to a tree and showed two dangerous rows of ivory and wielded his dexter paw in an ugly manner. Under the impression that he was too much injured to travel, and as night had set in, Grif went to Mifflin, intending to return and have the fun out the next day.

Accordingly, on Friday morning, he, in company with another man, both armed, and a dog, went in search of the bear, but when they came to the spot where he was last seen, it was found he had swam the river, crippled as he was, and made for the mountain. They followed his track and finally overtook him, when he immediately showed fight against the dog, whom he pinioned back of the neck and would not release his hold until despatched by a rifle ball. He was taken to Mifflin, and after being dressed weighed 284 pounds. One of his claws shown us, would leave a track in the snow about seven inches long by 4½ inches broad.

IMPORTANT SUITS.—At the adjourned Court held in Hollidaysburg last week, the case of Charles Hughes against the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company was tried. The plaintiff's claim amounted to $10,000, and was for 100 tons of railroad iron taken from the Portage Road, and damages. The dft. claimed to own it under a purchase made from the State, or the Agent of the State, before the sale of the Public Works, while the Company lay claim to it under their purchase of the Main Line in 1857. We happened to be in Court while it was being tried and had the pleasure of hearing the argument of Col. Hall, of this place, on the part of the defence. It was one of his best efforts—a clear and logical argument. The jury rendered a verdict for the dft. for $675, the value, we understand, of ten tons of iron. It is said the Company will take the case to the Supreme Court.

A suit, in which considerable interest was manifested, and which involved a principle of great importance to all citizens, and especially to collectors of taxes, was tried on Friday last It was an action of trespass brought by James Hutchison against Abraham Markey, collector of taxes for Logan township, for 1859. It seems that Markey levied on the plff's horse, in October last, and sold it for taxes, the plff having refused to pay. The plff alleges that the deft. did not demand the taxes from him thirty days before he seized the horse, and his counsel insisted that he must show that he did. On the other hand, deft's counsel took the position that Markey was a public officer and that the law presumed that he discharged his duty—that it was for the other side to show he did not make the demand, even though it did involve a negative. The Court agreed with the deft, and so instructed the jury, who, notwithstanding the charge (and much contrary to general expectation) found a verdict for the plff, for a part of his claim. We learn a motion has been made for a new trial.

ADVENT OF WINTER.—The genial Summer is past, glorious Autuun has departed, and the aged and stern old Winter King has made his advent, with icy breath and lowering brow.—With all his rudeness and coldness and wailings, who don't like grim, frosty old Winter—jolly, roystering old Winter—happy, healthy, blustering old Wiuter—the time for fun and frolic, song and sentiment, social dancing parties, jolly home circles, sparkling fires, long evenings and favorite authors? Now does the keen wind buoy up the drooping spirits and impart a fruition that no Summer day's languor can impart—now does the glowing skater skim gracefully over the smooth blue ice—and soon will tinkle the merry sleigh bells over hill and dale. And now, O, Winter! comes the especial season of feasting, of harmless relaxation, and joyous revelry—now comes merry, fat, good-natured Christmas, and jolly, happy, hopeful New Year. These, Winter, are thine own. No other season can lay claim to them—no other season can give them to us. And though thy hair be frosty and white, Old Winter, and thy face pinched and blue, thy heart is right and true and sincere, and thy hands are open, as thou treadst this good old earth. There is much to be enjoyed and to be thankful for during thy reign on this slandered World of ours—in thine not alone but in those of thy brothers, Spring, Summer and Autumn—by the possessors of warm hearts, good tempers, social dispositions and clear consciences. God's blessing on thee for the good you bring, and health to all to enjoy it.—And when

May those who have warm rooms and cheerful fire-places remember in mercy the suffering and the destitute, and share with them some portion of the blessings and the bounty that is their dower.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—George Smith is about receiving his holiday stock of confectionaries, toys for children and knick knacks generally, at his store corner of Main and Caroline streets, to which he invites the attention of old and young, as he will have something to suit everybody.

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.—We refer our readers to a descriptive advertisement of the above work in another column. It comes highly recommended as supplying a public want, in offering in a compact, portable form, plain, simple rules for every calculation required for ordinary business. To the man who has so far out-grown his schooling as to feel rusty when called upon for work or estimates out of the line of his every day transactions, it affords the clue most readily and conveniently; while to one deficient in all but the rudiments of a mathematical education, its lucid rules and examples are sufficient to enable him to solve every question presenting itself in any but extraordinary business transactions As a handy book of reference it is invaluable, and may be relied on as authority.

RECOMMENDED.—The Whig urges Hon. Samuel Calvin, of Hollidaysburg, as a suitable person to fill the office of United States Senator.—Mr. C. has a good record so far as his fidelity to the interests of Pennsylvania is concerned, and would make a creditable representative, but we fear his pole is too short to knock the high persimons this time.

The Johnstown Tribune recommends Robert M. Lemon, better known as Bob Lemon, of Hollidaysburg, as a suitable person to fill the office of Marshall of the Western District of Pennsylvania, Whether Bob has any aspirations that way we are not advised.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit a reader of your paper to pay a deserving compliment to the landlord of "White Hall Hotel," and the excellent house he keeps. The writer of this, with a number of gentlemen, were invited to a supper on Thanksgiving evening, with "mine host" of the above named hotel, and I but speak the unanimous sentiment of the party in saying that a more luxuriant table we never sat down to.—It was covered with everything inviting to the palate, and the variety so great as to allow each taste to be satisfied. May the clever fellow who keeps the "White Hall" enjoy a large share of public patronage, and long may he wave. X.

ROMANTIC.—The Tyrone Star details an account of a novel wedding which took place on the Huntingdon Accommodation train on its upward trip one day, some two weeks since. Esquire Burley, of Tyrone, received word that the couple would be on the Accommodation Train, and wished him to meet them. Upon the arrival of the train, Esquire B. stepped in and performed the ceremony, much to the surprise of the other passengers, after which the "model conductor" sung out "all right," and the happy couple passed on their journey over the rail and through life.

CONDUCTOR KILLED.—Mr Herman Updegraff, a citizen of Johnstown, and for several years past Conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was killed on Wednesday afternoon, near Latrobe, by falling from his train, which passed over and mangled him in a most horrible manner. We did not learn the cause of the accident. Mr. Updegraff was a married man, and the father of several small children, all dependent on him for support. His remains were taken to Johnstown, on the Accommodation, for interment.

☞ Thanksgiving was generally observed by the business portion of the community in this place. Work was suspended in the Rail Road Shops and all the stores were closed. A sermon suitable to the occasion was delivered in the Presbyterian Church, at half past 10 o'clock in the morning, by Rev. A. B Clark. In the afternoon the scholars connected with the public schools convened in the Methodist Church, where they were addressed by Revs. Ehrenfeld, Creighton, Clark and others.

NOT GUILTY.—Anthony Roeloff, conductor, and James Armstrong, engineer, who had charge of the train which ran into the crowd at Huntingdon, during the fair and encampment at that place, last fall, thereby killing two men and injuring another, and who were arrested therefor on the charge of manslaughter, had their trial at the recent term of Court in that county. In the case of Roeloff, the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." In the case of Armstrong, the District Attorney entered a nolle prosequi.

LOOK OUT BOYS.—Two young men were recently arrested and fined, in Allentown, for defacing handbills. This game of defacing bills is practised to a considerable extent in this place, and those who put up handbills may yet be driven to the necessity of pursuing a course similar to that adopted in Allentown, to protect their property. So, look out boys, that you are not taken on a "wherens" some of these days, and invited to appear before the Chief Burgess

COKE.—We have tried the coke burned at the gas works in this place, and are of the opinion that it is just the article for those who use coal stoves and wish an article which will make a quick, hot fire, and at the same time prove economical. It is sold at 6¼ cents per bushel at the works. Let those who wish something of this kind give the gas coke a trial.

A POLITICAL BIOTER WITH A SWORD BLADE IN HIS BACK.—During the election riot at Illinoistown, Ill., a man named John Denoar was stabbed in the back with a sword cane. The weapon was driven in about midway of the spinal column, and then broken off within about two inches of the body.

It was found impossible to extract the weapon, and Denoar was conveyed from Illinoistown to the Health Office. A physician was called in, and endeavored to pull out the weapon with a small pair of forceps or pincers. He applied the pincers some half a dozen times and pulled with all the strength he could command, but so firmly was the steel transfixed in the bone that the pincers invariably slipped off, and the "claws" finally became injured in such a manner that the pincers were rendered useless.

The Doctor endeavored to loosen the weapon in a variety of ways, but to no purpose. It had been driven in with so much force that it was even more strongly transfixed in the bone than a nail driven into a stick of wood Dr. Smith finally procured a pair of shoemaker's nippers and made another effort. After one or two trials he succeeded in securing a good "purchase" upon the weapon and extricated it. It measured in all five inches—three inches of which had penetrated the spinal column, and there remained firmly imbedded for twelve or fourteen hours.

☞ On Thursday evening last, Grif. Conner, engineer on 1st Through Freight Train running from this place to Mifflin, had the good fortune to disable a large bear which attempted to cross the track about four miles west of Mifflin. The skin of this animal is to be made into a robe, but we doubt whether it will be as comfortable, cheap or serviceable as a suit of clothes from the large and elegant invoice of fashionable clothing received by Dan Laughman, on Saturday last, at his cheap clothing bazaar, on Virginia street, in the store formerly occupied by G. W. Kessler. Call, and you will not go away dissatisfied.

CONCERT.—We understand that the scholars connected with the Presbyterian Sunday School, in this place, are now practising with the view of giving a public concert in a short time, for the purpose of raising money for the School.

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another Great Cure effected by Barhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS;

THE

Worthy of any Confidence

FOR RESTORING

THE BALD AND GRAY.

Many, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but professed to have discovered something that would produce results which have given rise to numerous inquiries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated and been used not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury.—I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful. I gave it to my all friends and thereby induced them to try it, many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a text by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear without authority from you. A case of this will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty as hereto fore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who enquire of me of my undaken opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

AARONS RUN, Ky., Nov. 30, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir.—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful, as well as unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whom-ever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it. Resp'y you s. REV. S. ALLEN BROCK.

P. S.—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited, but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not destroy as I say nothing.

Yours, &c., REV S A B.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the mediums hold at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion an' retails for $3 a bottle. O J WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. [Dec. 6, '60 3m

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR,

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operations, by Martin M. Rohrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract, multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophical figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works is in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.

THE WORK TREATS OF THE

Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of stone and stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coal and coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of irregular, square or irregular vessels, of cisterns and vats, of roofing, of plasterer's, painter's, glazier's, paver's, plumber's, paper hanger's and upholsterers' work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchange, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and compound interest, and their practice application to business transactions, with the laws and usages governing and regulating the same, together with numerous commercial forms—of legal tender, of partial payment on notes, of banking and bank discount, of equation of payment and of partnership accounts, of assessment of taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure, of the square root and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE

Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan, or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, and real estate broker, to the assessor the banker, the clerk, to the civil engineer and the surveyor, to the carpenter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the tiler, &c., &c. each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.

☞ Mailed (post paid) to any part of the United States, upon receipt of the money. Price of a single copy, in cloth, 60 cents, or two copies for $1,00. Bound in pocket-book form, morocco, $1.50 per copy.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen, sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Misnenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.—Invalids no long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by Female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and life complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise, for which the physicians has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting nor overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, exacting, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE ASSIMILATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose dissociation as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'adache this hafternoon. Hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you 'ease me of an 'adache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'adache.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st—The large and superb steel engraving, 36x28 inches, entitled,

"FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS,"

2d—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine,

"THE COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d—Four admissions, during the season, to

The Gallery of Paintings, 549, Broadway, New York.

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

The superb engraving, which every subscriber will receive, entitled, "Falstaff Mustering his Recruits," is one of the most beautiful and popular engravings ever issued in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 36 by 28 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff recruiting in Justice Shallow's office, the recruits which have been gathered for his "ragged regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the evening of the 31st of January, 1861, at which time the books will close and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships and to one extra engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all foreign countries, must be $3,50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, etc.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cents per number. Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin. Address,

A Real Blessing.

Physician,—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes. I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills. I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

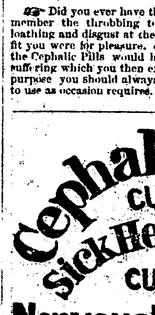
TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purpose you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.



By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by ADOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHNEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac-simile of his signature of the certificate.—The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

GEORGE H. ASHTON, No. 832 Market St., Phila.
Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Adolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21 Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases: the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1856 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some years old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope it is less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

HAIR OILS, COLOGNES, POMades, Shaving Cream, Toilet Soaps, &c. for sale by

C. W. KESSLER.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND.

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled glow and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed in color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when done with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them be satisfied, and be cured.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOK STOVES

ECONOMY IN SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER,

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blustering puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, supernannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.
